

Matt Schultz's Great Valley Patriot Pride Baseball Camp

Director Matt Schultz, head baseball coach and physical education teacher at Great Valley HS, has developed a camp that assists kids in becoming the best they can be and feel good about themselves through the game of baseball. The goal of Coach Schultz and the Patriot Pride Camp staff is to help players of all ability levels improve their baseball skills, knowledge, and self-esteem.

Take advantage of the opportunity to develop fundamental skills through drills with guided instruction by your local Great Valley HS players, college players, and coaches. The first-rate counselor involvement provided every day and is an outstanding aspect of camp that your child will treasure.

Aspects covered at camp include guided instruction and activities such as hitting, pitching, fielding, game play, and conditioning. Age appropriate skill sessions and games will be implemented to create a fun and comfortable learning environment. Campers will be grouped by age and skill level and assigned a counselor for the week that will provide attention and encouragement to campers as they learn the aspects of baseball.
